WEDS CHURCH SINGER.

Presbyterian Minister Is Once
'More Married.

FIRST WIFE IS DIVORCED.

Rev. R. A. Boyce Forms Acquaintance of Present One While He Was the Assistant Pastor of a Fashionable
Pittsburg Congregation.

Pittsburg, Aug. 30.—The congregation of the fashionable First Presbyterian church, the wealthiest church in the city, of which Rev. Dr. Maitland T. Alexander is pastor, has been thrown into convulsions by the announcement of the marriage by the Rev. Dr. Charles Parkhurst in New York of the Rev. R. A. Boyce, former assistant pastor of the church, to Miss Sarah Kindred Williams, former contralto singer in the choir. The pair are supposed to be in Norfolk, Va., while the former wife and two children of Boyce are at the home of her parents in Allegheny City.

Boyce was formerly a Pullman car conductor. While engaged in that business he met, seven years ago, Nellie, the daughter of A. D. Armstrong, a wealthy and prominent citizen of Allegheny. They were married and soon afterward Boyce became very religious and expressed a desire to study for the ministry. He did so, and influential friends of the Armstrong family got him a position as assistant pastor of the First Presbyterian church.

About two years ago the congregation engaged Miss Sarah Kindred Williams, who had just graduated from a New York musical school, and who came from a prominent family at Norfolk, as contralto. Shortly after her arrival she was taken by the Rev. Mr. Boyce to his home, where she boarded during her connection with the church.

Soon there were rumors concerning the names of the pastor and that of the singer, and finally the talk became so pronounced that Rev. Boyce was compelled to resign. Miss Williams also resigned. Soon after this Mrs. Boyce left her home and refused to return to it, and allowed her husband to secure a divorce on the grounds of desertion.

SCARED BY SHARK.

Score of Young Lady Bathers
Have Exciting Adventure.

New Haven, Conn., Aug. 30.—Twenty young women were bathing at Rocky Beach when a shark swam in among them. Their shrieks would have frightened anything but a shark. The terrified yells brought to their instant rescue Police Captain James Brewer of this city, who adds year by year to his reputation as a shark catcher.

The shark was nearest Miss Daisy Stone. When Captain Brewer, alarmed by the cries of the women, rushed from his summer cottage, Miss Stone was making frantic efforts to reach shore. Brewer jumped in his skill, put off, and with only a boat-hook at tacked the shark, lunging at it again and again.

The shark, eager to fight, seized the end of the boat hook, and came preciously near pulling the captain over board. Brewer grabbed up an oar and belabored the fish. All the women scrambled to the beach, when, being out of danger, several promptly fainted.

Men in boats carrying grappling irons, put off to Brewer's aid. Finally, fighting to the last, the shark was impaled on a big grappling hook and a dozen men hauled him, struggling thrashing with his tail, to the sands. The fish is eight feet long and, judging from the rows of sharp, shining teeth, was a man-eater. The bathers yow he is a woman-eater, anyhow.

The shark's body was brought here. The skeleton will be mounted and put in Yale's museum, probably.

Captain Brewer killed a twelve-foot shark at Rocky Beach last summer. Its teeth and bones adorn Yale's museum.

AGED PREACHERS' HOME.

Methodists of North Alabama to Erect
One at Decatur.

Decatur, Aug. 30.—It is stated that the Methodists of north Alabama will erect at either this place or New Decatur a home for their superannuated ministers. J. E. Penney and J. L. Brock have donated a lot in New Decatur. A lady at Athens has contributed $1,000. The home will be named in honor of the late Rev. Anson West, who died recently, and was one of the oldest clergymen of the Methodist faith in Alabama.

PLATFORM FALLS.

Ten Persons Killed and Eighty Others
Sustained Injuries.

Porto, Portugal, Aug. 30.—A platform erected by a local newspaper on the occasion of a lottery drawing collapsed Friday, hurling to the ground about 500 persons, of whom ten were killed and eighty injured.

OVER EIGHTY PERISHED.

Portion of New Bridge Went Down Quickly.

MAD RUSH FOR SAFETY.

One of the Worst Disasters That the Dominion of Canada Has Ever Had
Results in a Number of Workmen
Descending to Death.

Quebec, Aug. 30.—A section of the new bridge across the St. Lawrence river, five miles below this city, collapsed Thursday, carrying scores of workers and mechanics into the water. A careful estimate places the loss of life at eighty-four.

The bridge was about a mile and a half in length, and half of it, from the south shore to midstream, crumpled up and dropped into the water. Ninety men were at work on this section of the structure, and the whistle had just blown at 5:30 for the men to quit work for the day when they heard a grinding sound from the bridge midstream. The men turned to see what had happened, and an instant later the cry went up: "The bridge is falling!"

The men made a mad rush toward the shore, but the distance was too great for them to escape. The fallen section of the bridge dragged others after it, the snapping girders and cables booming like a crash of artillery. Terror lent fleetness to the feet of the frightened workmen as they sped shoreward, but only a few of them reached safety before the last piece of iron work on the south shore was dragged into the river.

Near the shore the wreckage of the bridge did not go below the surface of the water, and eight workmen who remained above water were rescued and taken to the hospital at Levis.

The steamer Glenmont had just cleared the bridge when the first section fell, and the water thrown up by the debris came clear over the bridge of the steamer. The captain at once lowered boats. The small boats piled backward and forward over the sunken wreckage for half an hour, but there was no sign of life. The twisted iron and steel had its victims in a terrible death grip. A few floating timbers and the broken strands of the bridge towards the north shore were the only signs that anything unusual had happened. There was not a ripple on the smooth surface of the St. Lawrence as it swept along toward the Gulf.

All the men drowned were employees of the Phoenixville Bridge company and sub-contractors of Quebec and Montreal.

At 10:30 at night sixteen bodies had been picked up, and of the eight men in the hospital, two were not expected to live through the night.

The Quebec bridge was begun about seven years ago, and it was to be finished in 1909. Subsidies had been granted by the Federal and provincial governments and the city of Quebec, and the estimated cost of the work was $10,000,000.

FIGHT ABOUT BUSINESS.

Small Riot Results and Six Persons
Placed Under Arrest.

Terre Haute, Ind., Aug. 30.—A family quarrel in the Roumanian settlement resulted in a small riot and the arrest of six men on the charge of assault and battery.

The trouble is said to have started by the assertion that John Nichols did more business at his saloon, 1448 Ash street, than does Dan Albin at his two saloons, 1462 Ash street, and another in the south end. Albin and Nichols are related by marriage, and it is said that bad blood exists between the two men.

The trouble began at Nichols' place of business, and finished in front of John Chic's place, 1460 Ash street. As the fight progressed along the street a crowd collected, and by the time an officer arrived the neighborhood was in an uproar. Patrolman Fortune was first to arrive upon the scene. He was given a warm reception. He was knocked down and bruised.

A general alarm was sent to head quarters and a squad of men was sent to the scene.

NO CORPSE THERE.

When Husband Got Back He Found
Wife Had Vanished.

Johnstown, Pa., Aug. 30.—Michael Buck, agent at Barnesboro for an undertaker of Carrolltown, went to Clymer, Indiana county, to get the body of a man reported to have died there. When he arrived there he found there was no corpse, because one had died. When he got back home he made another discovery—his wife had gone away. She has not been heard from since. In connection with the case G. J. Smelko, proprietor of the City hotel at Barnesboro, has been sued on a serious charge, made by Buck, and has given bail.

OBSCENE CARDS.

Philadelphia Party Said to Have Sent Out Thousands.

Philadelphia, Aug. 30.—Charged by United States postal inspectors with the wholesale selling of obscene postal cards, Gustave P. Lang of this city, who traded under the name of the P. C. Novelty company, was arrested and held in bail for trial. The arrest of Lang is regarded as the most important capture yet made in the crusade against objectionable cards. The case was brought to the attention of the authorities by a resident of Rome, N. Y., who received a sample series of postals. It is said the nature of the cards led him to complain, and the arrest of Lang followed.

After he had been taken into custody Lang's place of business was searched. The officials claim that in addition to hundreds of obscene cards, abundant evidence in the way of orders shipped to individuals and firms throughout the country was discovered. One of the firms in New York, it is claimed, ordered 22,000 cards, while there were other orders ranging from 100 to 8,000.

The police authorities say Lang is a wholesaler, and has agents in many cities. It is said he has other employees who are known as "road agents," and whose business it is to go to the smaller towns and take orders, which are filled direct from this city. It is expected several other arrests will be made in a few days.

BY CARNES & WALLACE

BRYAN, TEXAS, SEPT 1, 1907

Probably nobody believes more confidently that Bryan will be the presidential nominee than Bryan himself.

There is no doubt that the farmers, if they will stick together and demand it, can get 15 cents for their cotton.

The railroad commission has suspended its order requiring the I. & G. N. train No. 4 to stop at Franklin, Robertson county, subject to a hearing.

It is reported that the farmers around Mexia are hauling water from the spring in that town, their home supplies having been exhausted by the drouth.

A commercial club is perhaps the best of all agencies for promoting the growth of a town. At present there seems to be a revival of interest in commercial clubs throughout the state.

Every person who sends money abroad for anything that is kept for sale in his home town deprives the community including himself of the amount sent. Spend a dollar at home and you stand a good chance to get it back again, but send it away it is gone forever.

A gigantic scheme is now being prompted in the vicinity of Rockdale, where a large number of lignite mines are located. The promoters advance the proposition that the energy contained in lignite can be more cheaply transported and utilized by the use of the electric wire than by the old-time box car. In other words they propose the erection near Rockdale of immense power houses for the creation of electricity by the use of lignite, which is very cheap fuel at the mines. The electricity generated at this central point may be made available for a distance of 100 miles in each direction, and can be used for almost any purpose, including the lighting of towns and cities, the running of cars, motors, etc. The scheme seems to be feasible, and if worked out to a successful conclusion will be one of the wonders of the country.—Madisonville Meteor.

A SERENADE.

After a day of labor
I had sunk into dreamless sleep,
And my spirit was drinking refreshment
In copious drafts and deep.

But anon my slumbers were broken
By music that was not of dreams,
Though it seemed to blend with the moonlight
In soothing, slumbrous streams.

The voices were those of children,
Untrained in the schools of art,
But swelling like notes of woodwarblers,
Spontaneous from music-full hearts.

They sang of our glorious country
And the star-spangled flag of the free,
Of moonlight, of music, of flowers,
And of love's deep mystery.

But the last song was the sweetest—
The song of "Home, Sweet Home,"
For it carried me back to my childhood,
Before I had learned to roam.

And then for a little season
I was a child again,
And drank from the glorious fountain
Of pleasure unmingled with pain.

E'er slumber again enthralled me,
My latest thought was a prayer
That God would bless the dear children,
For bringing surcease of care.

Among the choicest blessings
That God in mercy hath given,
Is the love of pure-hearted children.
"For of such is the kingdom of heaven."

DAVIDSON RETURNS.

Attorney General Has Enjoyable
Time In Mexico.

Austin, Aug. 30.—Attorney General Davidson has returned from his trip to Mexico. He reports having an enjoyable time, being particularly pleased with the manner in which he was entertained by President Diaz. He said he had read the telegraphers' communication in the newspapers, but it will be a day or two before he acts on the matter.

Some time ago the adjutant general's department was advised of extensive cattle stealing in Trinity county, and an urgent request was made for rangers. It was stated that cattle were being stolen in large numbers and shipped to Houston and other markets for disposition. Two rangers were detailed to Trinity county and they worked with a former ranger in the employ of the Texas Cattle Raisers' association. The department was advised Thursday that three arrests had been made, and other would follow within the next few days.

The railroad commission gave notice that it will take up on Oct. 8 and consider the matter of a tariff of rates to be assessed by the different railroads of the state for the transportation of circuses, carnival companies, street fairs, etc.

Saloon Licenses Granted.

Austin, Aug. 30.—The total number of permits to saloon keepers to take out licenses was up to Friday 3,749.

HANWAY STORE WILL BE REBUILT.

The aftermath of the fire bids little to add to the report of the Eagle yesterday morning. J. T. Hanway states the store will be rebuilt or repaired and he will resume business as early as possible at the old stand. Meanwhile his business will be conducted at his warehouse in the rear of Wagner & Brandon's store. Amount of insurance carried on the building was $2300.00, and this will in all probability be sufficient to restore it to its former condition.

P. L. Winter announces that he will reopen his barber shop as soon as he is able to secure a suitable location, for which he is now negotiating.

The firemen were the recipients of many more hearty congratulations yesterday on their magnificent work in not only checking the flames but saving the major portion of the building. They should receive every encouragement from the city and from citizens and should be provided with the best equipment, that conditions will allow. J. W. Hamilton showed his appreciation of the work of the fire boys by sending them a check for $10.00 yesterday.

WILLIAMS NOT TO HANG.

Governor Campbell Commutes Sentence to Life Imprisonment.

Austin, Aug. 30.—Governor Campbell decided to commute the death sentence of Harry Williams of Beaumont to life imprisonment. The governor took into consideration the petition from Beaumont, stating Williams is mentally irresponsible.

The governor was in session with the pardon board some time and did not reach the decision until late. There were many applications for commutation.

Williams was a sailor, and it was alleged that he killed a convict guard named McCann while he was asleep.

SLEPT SIXTY HOURS.

Electric Batteries Used to Restore Him to Consciousness.

St. Paul, Aug. 30.—Gabriel Sackro, an Italian laborer, twenty-four years old, slept continuously sixty hours. His friends were unable to arouse him, and he was taken to the city hospital. There are no symptoms of poison or injury. Electric batteries were employed during the last thirty hours to keep the man alive and the current brought him to consciousness.

Sackro received a letter from home a few days ago announcing the death of his mother. It is thought that may have something to do with his condition.

DROPS DEAD.

Prominent Oklahoma Lady Expires on Reaching Street Car.

Oklahoma City, Aug. 30.—Mrs. W. M. Sasher, corresponding secretary of the New State Federation of Women's clubs, died a victim to heat prostration and heart failure as she was attempting to board a car for the business district on a shopping expedition. She had to run to catch the car, and was overcome as she stepped on the running board.

Mrs. Sasher was twenty-five years old. Her husband is a traveling man, and was at El Reno when notified of his wife's death.

FOSTER'S WEATHER BULLETIN.

(Copyrighted 1907, by W. T. Foster.)

Washington, D. C., August 31.—Last bulletin gave forecasts of disturbance to cross continent 30 to Sept. 3, warm wave 29 to Sept. 2, cool wave Sept. 1 to 5. Next disturbance will reach Pacific Coast about Sept. 4, cross west of the Rockies country by close of 5, great central valleys 6 to 8, eastern states 9. Warm wave will cross west of Rockies about 4, great central valleys 6 eastern states 8. Cool wave will cross west of Rockies about 7, great central valleys 9, eastern states 11.

This disturbance will follow a great fall in temperatures and will bring a moderate warm wave, but on most parts of the continent temperatures will average below normal, and frequent showers may be expected as this disturbance passes eastward.

The center of the August drouth was about 300 miles further southwest than I had calculated and it is now seen that the central parts of the drouth was not far from central Texas. On account of this error the line between the expected northern excessive rains and expected drouth in southwestern part of the corn section, was further southwestward than calculated.

This leaves the frost king Master of the situation. Where the drouth prevailed killing frost may not be feared before Sept. 20. But further north, where rains have been excessive and the crops are not mature, the early frosts now become a dangerous element in the crop weather question.

There are four periods to be watched and feared—Sept. 4, 10, 16 and 21. Killing frosts are expected to reach parts of Canada and some northern sections of the states not far from Sept. 4, along meridian 90; a little earlier west of that line and a little later east of it. After that each successive frost date given is expected to send killing frosts further south. The last one, about Sept. 21, reaching northern parts of the cotton belt.

We are now able to approximate the dates and locations of the local drouths, excessive rains and frosts and we are rapidly approaching that perfection in the calculations that will enable us to be much more successful in forecasting these three important features of the weather.

About August 31, I expect the hot wave of the disturbance to be near meridian 90. On that meridian, and a little later further east, I expect an extensive cool wave not long after Sept. 1. The fall in temperature will be great, reaching its lowest on that line not far from Sept. 4.

I expect the southwestern drouth to be broken within the week whose central day will be Sept. 7 and that week will be a momentous period as to killing frosts in the northern states and the spring wheat country of Canada.

The storms about and immediately following Sept. 1 will be of greater than average force of intensity and will affect the whole continent. But my readers must not understand the word storm to mean anything destructive. We say rain storm, hail storm, snow storm, etc., without implying anything dangerous. I use the shorter term, storm, for convenience. When I expect a dangerous storm you will have no reason for misunderstanding my meaning.

I now have a good force of clerks at work on the weather records and the calculations of the 1908 crop weather forecasts. With past experience, renewed health, and better facilities, I hope for great improvements over all past efforts.

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not in itself a true disease. We think of dyspepsia, heartburn, and indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain specific nerve sickness—nothing else.

It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop in the creation of that now very popular Stomach Remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves, alone brought that success and favor to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. Without that original and highly vital principle, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had.

For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath, and yellow complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. We sell and cheerfully recommend

Rheumatism

I have found a tried and tested cure for Rheumatism! Not a remedy that will straighten the distorted limbs of chronic cripples, nor turn bony growths back to flesh again. That is impossible. But I can now surely kill the pains and pangs of this deplorable disease.

In Germany—with a Chemist in the City of Darmstadt—I found the last ingredient with which Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy was made—a perfected, dependable prescription. Without that last ingredient, I successfully treated many, many cases of Rheumatism; but now, at last, I can cure all curable cases of this horrible, most dreaded disease. Those sand-like granular wastes, found in Rheumatic Blood, seem to dissolve and pass away under the action of this remedy as freely as does sugar when added to pure water. And then, when dissolved, these poisonous wastes freely pass from the system, and the cause of Rheumatism is gone forever. There is now no real need—no actual excuse to suffer longer without help. We sell, and in confidence recommend

Heart Strength

Heart Strength, or Heart Weakness, means Nerve Strength, or Nerve Weakness—nothing more. Positively, not one weak heart in a hundred is, in itself, actually diseased. It is almost always a hidden tiny little nerve that really is all at fault. This obscure nerve—the Cardiac, or Heart Nerve—simply needs, and must have, more power, more stability, more controlling, more governing strength. Without that the Heart must continue to fail, and the stomach and kidneys also have these same controlling nerves.

This clearly explains why, as a medicine, Dr. Shoop's Restorative has in the past done so much for weak and ailing hearts. Dr. Shoop first sought the cause of all this painful, palpitating, suffocating heart distress. Dr. Shoop's Restorative—this popular prescription—is alone directed to these weak and wasting nerve centers. It builds: it strengthens; it offers real, genuine heart help.

If you would have strong hearts, strong digestion, strengthen these nerves—re-establish them as needed, with

HAS SPLENDID TRIP.

Davidson Delighted With Diaz and Admires Thompson.

Austin, Aug. 30.—In speaking of his visit to Mexico Attorney General Davidson said that he had a most excellent time and was quite cordially received both personally and officially.

The feature of his trip was a visit to President Diaz at the national palace. Attorney General Davidson stated that considerable red tape has to be gone through in order to see the president of the Mexican republic. In order to see the Mexican president it became necessary for him to see the United States ambassador to Mexico, Mr. Thompson, and through him the visit was arranged. On the day appointed for the visit to the national palace, the ambassador called at General Davidson's hotel and got him and his family, who accompanied him to Mexico, and in carriages drove to the national palace, and were ushered through a double line of soldiers guarding the palace. They were taken into the president's reception room and in a few minutes the president appeared alone and through an interpreter had the visitors presented to him and they were given a royal welcome. The visit occupied nearly half an hour. General Davidson declares he found President Diaz a most affable man, just about the average height, with an impressive Castilian face and a thorough military bearing.

The ambassador also proved a most courteous gentleman and gave his personal attention to the head of the legal department of the state of Texas. He also has an interpreter.

General Davidson spoke in high praise of the fine weather which prevails in Mexico. He said that the climate was just as it is usually here in the month of November. It was necessary most of the time to wear a light overcoat. General Davidson also visited Poco park and found it delightful there. Among the articles brought back with him was a beautiful Mexican blanket, which General Davidson presented to Governor Campbell. The general found the Mexican people a most courteous people. In fact, he declared that etiquette and politeness was a study with the Mexican people.

DUEL WITH SHOTGUNS.

Two Ellis County Citizens Have Battle on Road.

Waxahachie, Tex., Aug. 30.—Near Ray, this county, Tom Davis and W. H. Jeans had a shotgun duel. Davis received two charges of small shot in the face and breast and one buckshot struck Jeans in the back. Both men will recover, say attending physicians. It is said that Davis fired four times and Jeans twice. The buckshot that hit Jeans entered his back just below a shoulder blade and lodged in the left breast.

The shooting is said to have been the result of previous trouble between the men. Davis had come here and made a complaint against Jeans, alleging the offense of abusive language and disturbing the peace. Jeans came to Waxahachie and made bond in the sum of $100. He was on his way home when the shooting occurred.

DROP DREADFUL.

Steel Structure Was One Hundred and Fifty Feet High.

Quebec, Aug. 30.—With the first dawn of day half a dozen government and Quebec Bridge company tugs began a search of the St. Lawrence river for the victims of Thursday night's catastrophe. The dead number at least seventy-five and may reach eighty-five. Up to the early hour Friday less than twenty bodies had been recovered. The terrific drop of the great steel structure from 180 feet above the surface of the river crushed the bodies of many workmen in a frightful manner and it is feared many of them will never be found. Many of the dead are Americans brought here by the Phoenix bridge company of Phoenixville, Pa.

Both local and Dominion authorities have taken steps to investigate the cause of the disaster and fix the responsibility.

WELL BREAKS OUT.

Had Been Abandoned, but Now a Paying Proposition.

San Antonio, Aug. 30.—An old oil well in the Piedras Pintas field has suddenly broken loose and is gushing 500 barrels per day. This information was received by J. N. Groesbeck, Jr., from J. N. Groesbeck, Sr., who is at the field. The message was to the effect that the gushing well was one which had been clogged up and abandoned for some little time. It seems that the well was drilled originally and after gushing a small amount of mud became clogged. The derrick was removed to another spot by the operators and another well started.

MANSFIELD NO MORE.

Final Curtain Call Comes For Noted Thespian.

New London, Conn., Aug. 30.—After an illness of several weeks Richard Mansfield, the noted actor, passed away at this city early Friday. His death was directly due to disease of the liver, aggravated by complications. Dr. Allen said he had feared the worst for several days. During the great actor's last moments he was in a comatose condition and did not recognize the loved ones at his bedside. There were present at the time of his death, his wife, brother, Felix, and young son, Gibbs, and physicians and nurses.

For some time Mr. Mansfield had been in the Adirondack mountains in the hope that the bracing air and quiet surroundings would restore his health so he could the coming dramatic season resume his position as one of the foremost actors of the day. His condition, however, became worse, and a few days ago he returned to this city.

INTERMARRIAGE OF RACES

Either This or Let the Negroes Rule Is Professor's Idea.

Chicago, Aug. 30.—"Shall the white race intermarry with the negro, or shall the blacks be permitted to rule the southern states in which they are numerous?"

These startling alternatives, suggested as solutions of the negro question by Professor Zueblin of the University of Chicago in an address delivered at the chapel exercises of the school of education Thursday, have caused a profound difference of opinion at the Midway school.

"Intermarriage or segregation are the only possible remedies for the race question," said Professor Zueblin. "Either gives the negroes the right to rule in the districts where they are the most numerous, or break down the barriers of race by intermarriage."

"Take Mississippi or South Carolina, for instance. Let the black men rule these states. That does not necessarily mean that all the white men must be driven out, but that the black men, who are in the numerical majority, must be given the power to which their votes entitle them."

"By segregation I do not mean the placing of the colored race in a place where no white man can intrude, but I mean to allow the negro to have a voice in the settlement of affairs. The negro should have something to say about the government that rules over him."

UNIQUE EVENT.

Indians Have "Fish Kill" Not Far From Eufaula.

Eufaula, I. T., Aug. 30.—At Rocky Ford, near here, the Indians held a "fish kill." Several hundred were present. This is a unique affair. The Indians gather the roots of a weed known as "Devil's shoestrings." The weed grows about four feet high and has slender yellow roots. The roots are brought to the scene of the "kill" in bundles. After all preliminaries, large stakes are driven in some deep hole in the creek where the water does not flow swiftly. The Indian get in the water, dip the roots in the water and pound on the stakes. The juice from the roots falls in the water. In several hours the water is mixed with the root juice and the fish apparently drunk come to the top of the water. The Indians then get into the stream with gigs and clubs and beat the fish to death. After enough fish have been killed they are baked and Indians feast.

BEGGED BREAD.

Woman Then Proceeded to Sell What She Had Secured.

Beaver Falls, Pa., Aug. 30.—The police are on the lookout for a woman who, for weeks, has been victimizing citizens. The stranger would call at houses on one side of the street, and by telling of a sick husband and starving children, secured nicely baked loaves of bread. Then with this bread neatly packed in a clean basket she would call at houses on the other side of the avenue, and by telling how she "had to support a large family" would dispose of the bread at fancy prices.

The plan was highly successful until a day or two ago, when a Ninth avenue woman called on another across the street. The hostess happened to remark:

"You know how I hate to bake? Well, I have struck a bonanza. A poor woman who bakes for a living brings me the nicest bread every few days. I'll show you a loaf I bought this morning."

"Why," gasped the other, "I baked that myself, and this morning gave it to a poor woman who has a sick husband and a lot of starving children."

Then they investigated.
